This question is taken from 'The Bride Builder' which has been written by Will Allen Dromgoole. It is a beautiful short poem about an unselfish old man.
 The old man told his fellow pilgrim
 that he had crossed the deep, wide and wast chaim safely but it might prove a pitfall for the young traveller who is following him. Therefore, he built the bridge to span the tide

Q. 11
Ans-7.

This question is taken from the one act play 'If I were you'. It is about the Intruder & Gerrard, a playwright.

In this play, Gerrard created the scene of arrival of police. He told the Intruder that he had posted a man at the main road who forewarns about the police heading towards the cottage. He told the Intruder to ~~look~~ look out to the police himself and he pushed him and locked him in a cupboard. Then he took his revolver and pointed towards the cupboard. He rang to his friend to send sergeant and caught the Intruder. In this way, Gerrard foil the Intruder's plan and managed to lock him in a cupboard.

bet between the banker & the lawyer. The banker said to live five year in solitary cell. Then the lawyer said, he will leave not only five years but for fifteen years. The banker will give two millions for the bet. It was in excitement.

Following are the things that the lawyer learnt in prison:-

1- Life, Health and other so called blessings of the world are worthless.

2. Everything is void, weak, transitory, illusory & deceptive like a mirage.

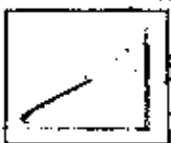

3. All the worldly riches are worthless.

4. Only one thing remain certain. That is death. Death soon away wife & everything.

5. Life is not worth living.

'HEALTH IS WEALTH'

"If wealth is lost, nothing lost;
If health is lost, everything is lost."

A healthy person can earn as much money by doing hard work but an unhealthy man cannot use his wealth properly. He can buy delicious food but he cannot digest it.

"A sound mind resides in a sound body. A healthy student can get as much knowledge as he need but an unhealthy student cannot study properly. It is said that, 'Health is Wealth'. It is easy to regain our lost wealth but it is not easy to regain our lost health.
