He says that we should not depend on future, though it may be pleasant.

Now, should be remember about Past. Events as they may be sad and we feel sorrow to think about them.

We should only pay attention to the present in which we are living. We should always think about present. Because if we want to get something or achieve something, we only pay attention to the present. A person who lives in past is nothing, has nothing, does nothing and becomes nothing.

We all should have goal of life ^{and} for that, we should always struggle.

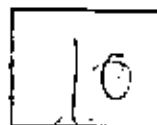

So, we should act, act and act.
