I come to know from your letter that you want to go in the field of administrative services. For this you have to appear in competitive exams. These exams are so hard and tough. A few hundred students appear in the examination, but only some students get selected. So, you need to work hard and give more attention on English and general knowledge.

If you need any help. I am always with you. Give my respect to your mother and father with my best regards.

Yours as ever,
Ajay Shekhar.

Game is life, life is a game, play it with zeal and never urge for fame. There is an old saying, "Health is wealth" and there is another saying, "A sound mind lives in a sound body." All these things tell us that if one has a good health, one can work very hard. Hard work is essential for prosperity and progress. Also Hardwork in sports gives good health and stamina.

Games and sports helps us in developing many qualities like discipline. Discipline is taught in games. One has to play the game in most disciplined way. He has to respect his captain. Along with this, The main aim of education is to develop ourselves physical, mental and moral qualities. Out of which physical qualities are more important. They help in developing mental health. also, The best source of physical development is games and sports. When we get bored we take support of games and sports to entertain ourself.

Child development increases by games and sports. They develop their brain, body and give them energy to work.

Games and sports should be made compulsory in every school. Without them students cannot develop completely. Study shows, students who are engaged in sports never get demotivated. So, students as well as elders should play games and sport.
